Engelberg

This small Alpine village, a 2 hour train ride from the Zürich airport, with an easy transfer in Lucerne is located at 3,000 ft, is the start of our Swiss adventure. You are surrounded by 10,000 ft mountain peaks and immediately sense you are in the middle of the Swiss Alps.

There is time to stroll through the Benedictine Monastery gardens originally founded in 1120 and visit the public retail shop where you see & learn how cheese is made and get to taste it too.

We take gondolas and cable cars to the summits where we hike on the well marked trails.

Melchsee-Frutt

This tiny Alpine village reachable by foot or cable car is nestled in between, a glacier lake and mountains. From our resort, you see the trails you've hike and are going to hike with stunning views.

The next day we present options on how to get to Meiringen where we board a local Swiss postal bus to Grindelwald; these include hike the ridge or ride the cable car, then bus and train.

Grindelwald

Now you are in this plush green valley full of pastures surrounded with chalet looking homes and hotels with 13,000 ft mountains like the Eiger, Mönch & Jungfrau and glaciers towering over you.

The train trip through the Eiger mountain to the top of the Jungfraujoch at 11,400 ft and the walk on Europe's largest glacier. It is really a one of a kind wonderful highlight fun experience.

On our way to Mürren, we walk through the Lauterbrunnen valley and visit the Trümmelbach Falls.

Mürren

The only way to reach lovely Mürren is by taking a series of cable cars & trains. Once you're there, you're walking around this charming 5,000 ft elevation car-free village.

You are at the foot of the Schilthorn peak where a James Bond 007 movie was filmed.

The entire Jungfrau mountain range stares at you - offering stunning Alpine views that you'll always treasure.
